"Hi little bird," said Bruce the moose with a smile, Now Bo had an idea: she could travel in style! "I'd like to use your antlers to build a nest with a view, A mobile home for me and good company for you."

This interactive book contains an entertaining story for toddlers with a great activity- the toddlers color the story the way they imagine it. "Bo the little bird, who lived high up in a tree, Stopped chirping one day; she was sad you see. Bored with the same view in the heat and cold, She wished to see the world before she grew old."

what a cute rhyming book with the funnest illustrations. Children are going to love this book that reads like a song and looking at Poor Bruce the Moose's expressions as he discovers you can't always take someone at their word. The author did a great job with this book and it is one any child will treasure, Fun to read aloud and share too!

Melvin was a special dog. In fact, he was so special that his last name was spelled D-a-w-g, not D-o-g.

Melvin was not like most dogs. Melvin had a sense of humor and a very vivid imagination. And, of course, Melvin could talk. In Melvin and His Amazing Magical Box, you will hear how Melvin's mother, Gertrude, gives Melvin a special magical box. Every week, either Melvin or one of his friends brings something special to Sunday school in that box. And magically, no matter what is in that box, Gertrude is able to use that item to teach Melvin and his friends something important about God and how God wants us to live. This book tells twelve stories that teach kids of all ages important lessons about love, friendship, families, prayer, hope, and joy.

This is a collection of stories about the adventures of make-believe rodents. In one of the stories, "The Doomed Airship," the rodents rescue some animals from the burning airship that crashed only blocks from Peter's parents' house. Would they be able to get out of the inferno before the rest of the airship explodes? It's for you to find out.
