Omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent almighty and supernatural Lord, Who created everything from nothing, was well known with the falling of man into sin before his creation. In the greatest plan of our Lord, Lord has created the man to dwell with him in worship and to rule over the world and all the creatures in the world (Genesis: 2:12) but due to the disobedience the man lost their dwelling place with the Lord and fallen into sin and became slaves of sin.

He mentioned Sarah, Elizabeth and Zachary, Anne and Joachim, and even St. Joseph as examples of fruitful older people. He also noted that many "Fathers of the Church" were old, and the apostles themselves were "a mixture of young and old." "So," the bishop concluded, "it seems to me that Christian civilization itself was born and the new world was begotten of the aged."
