Murder at the Brightwell: A Mystery by Ashley Weaver ...
Set in 1930s England, Murder at the Brightwell follows Amory Ames' unlikely trajectory from wealthy socialite to amateur sleuth. She attempts to solve the murder of a notorious ladies' man while juggling the reappearance of another ladies' man - her estranged husband, Milo.

Murder at the Brightwell by Ashley Weaver
Amory is also the center of the most believable love triangle I have read in ages. She is not being wishy washy (looking at you YA Fiction), but facing a realistic situation that is sadly all too common in real life. In short, Murder at the Brightwell is a book that can be judged by its very elegant and classy cover.

Murder at Brightwell, by Ashley Weaver, was originally published in 2014. I started with book 7, Deception At Thornecrest. Although the mystery was well enough I was very, very curious about the marriage between Amory and Milo Ames. It's a strange one, even for the 1930's.

Murder at the Brightwell by Ashley Weaver | LibraryThing
This first book in the Amory Ames cozy series, which is set in 1930's England at a seaside hotel, has the feel of a "golden age" mystery, though it was published in 2014. Interesting plot and a lead character, sleuth Amory Ames, is a person I would love to read more about.
