The US Department of Labor said. NPR reported the number of people filing claims for a federal assistance program for gig workers and self-employed individuals increased by 48% the same week.

In his "remarkable" (Men's Journal) and "controversial" (Fortune) book -- written in a "wry, amusing style" (The Guardian) -- Bruce Cannon Gibney shows how America was hijacked by the Boomers, a generation whose reckless self-indulgence degraded the foundations of American prosperity. In A Generation of Sociopaths, Gibney examines the disastrous policies of the most powerful generation in modern history, showing how the Boomers ruthlessly enriched themselves at the expense of future generations. Acting without empathy, prudence, or respect for facts--acting, in other words, as sociopaths--the Boomers turned American dynamism into stagnation, inequality, and bipartisan fiasco. The Boomers have set a time bomb for the 2030s, when damage to Social Security, public finances, and the environment will become catastrophic and possibly irreversible--and when, not coincidentally, Boomers will be dying off. Gibney argues that younger generations have a fleeting window to hold the Boomers accountable and begin restoring America.

These hearing transcripts present testimony concerning the quality and availability of child care in the United States, focusing on ways to improve the quality of home-based child care. Much of the testimony addressed the need to provide increased educational and training opportunities for home-based child care providers and to better regulate and inspect home-based providers. Testimony was heard from: (1) the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; (2) the Associate Director of Income Security Issues, U.S. General Accounting Office; (3) the administrator of the child care development division of the Oregon Employment Department (4) a community college department chair; and (5) two home-based child care providers. Additional materials from the U.S. General Accounting Office and parent advocacy groups are included. (MDM)
