What Happened (McClellan book) - Wikipedia

He originally believed Bush's campaign promise that he would change the culture in Washington D.C., but he was completely disappointed. His book What Happened, Inside the Bush White House and Washington's Culture of Deception was a criticism of what he felt went wrong with the Bush presidency. He wrote that Bush was not truthful with the public, was incapable of changing his mind after he made a decision and approached everything like it was a political campaign where winning the debate ...
