Worst. President. Ever. flips the great presidential biography on its head, offering an enlightening—and highly entertaining!—account of poor James Buchanan's presidency to prove once and for all that, well, few leaders could have done worse. But author Robert Strauss does much more, leading readers out of Buchanan's terrible term in office—meddling in the Dred Scott Supreme Court decision, exacerbating the Panic of 1857, helping foment the John Brown uprisings and "Bloody Kansas," virtually inviting a half-dozen states to secede from the Union as a lame duck, and on and on—to explore with insight and humor his own obsession with presidents, and ultimately the entire notion of ranking our presidents. He guides us through the POTUS rating game of historians and others who have made their own Mount Rushmores—or Marianas Trenches!—of presidential achievement, showing why Buchanan easily loses to any of the others, but also offering insights into presidential history buffs like himself, the forgotten "lesser" presidential sites, sex and the presidency, the presidency itself, and how and why it can often take the best measures out of even the most dedicated men.

A comprehensive guide to the powerful packaging tool called the "Hook"—a special talent or achievement that leaps off the page of a college application and catches the eye of admissions officers. Competition for entry to the nation's top colleges is at an all-time high—and intensifying every year. Now nationally recognized college consultant and writer Pam Proctor reveals the "packaging" secrets that can help any student maximize the odds of admission to the college of his or her choice. Using real life anecdotes and examples from winning applications, Proctor provides students with a step-by-step program that will enable them to determine and develop their unique "Hook," and then package and market themselves at every stage of the admissions process.

My name is Veronica Vulpine. I wish that I could say that I had a really exciting life being an extra in Miami Vice or being involved in a witchcraft covenant, but I am just me, living on a lonely mountainside. I have suffered through a high school that I hated, a college that I hated, buying a house and then losing my job, and many terrible jobs over the years to make ends meet. Many weird things have happened to me in the meantime, but I have managed to survive. I hope these tales give you a chance to endure whatever you are dealing with in life with a sense of humor because if I didn't have one, I'd be hanging somewhere by my shoelaces by now! I hope my little catharsis makes you all laugh, because that is the best medicine! Enjoy!

Have you ever left a College Night presentation at your high school frustrated by the lack of useful information? If you're a parent of a college bound teenager, then The Shocking Truth About College Applications is a must read for you. Just one of these ideas put to good use could dramatically reduce everyone's college application stress level, even if you've been through this process before. Here's what's revealed in this extraordinary book: How to overcome application anxiety. Secrets to make "nagging" a non-issue. The EASY way to make deadline dread vanish. How to make this time easier for your next child. Which pieces of the application puzzle are REALLY important. What you should and should not expect during this process. And much, much more besides! "If you have any reservation about giving your teenager the gift of working with Margie then let me tell you, go for it. You and your teen will be glad you did. She was a godsend when it was time for my son to apply to college. She made the whole process stress free. There was no screaming or eye rolling in our house, and for that I'm very grateful." Wendi Mason "Margie worked with both my sons when it was time for them to apply to college. They are as different as night and day, yet she knew how to get the most out of each of them. She pulled things out of them I didn't even know were there. Plus, she guided us through the whole application process, twice. Because of her the whole thing was virtually stress-free. I can truthfully say she was worth every penny!" Donna Burick

The college years are a time of noble pursuit of knowledge, self-betterment—and unending peril! Students are at risk from the moment they receive their acceptance letters. Fortunately, the authors of the phenomenally best-selling Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook series have come to the rescue, offering all-new, hands-on, step-by-step instructions for surviving the worst that higher education has to offer, on campus and off. Learn how to identify a party school, engineer a hookup, survive "the spins," and escape a stadium riot. Discover the best way to sleep in class, pass a test you haven't studied for, avoid the "freshman fifteen," and pull an all-nighter. With practical advice for avoiding laundry and identifying unsafe institutional food, along with an appendix of excuses for missed deadlines and a back-up diploma, this is truly required reading for all college students—and a perfect high school graduation present.

Writing a memorable personal statement can seem like an overwhelming project for a young college applicant, but college essay coach Alan Gelb's holistic strategy and reassuring voice takes out the intimidation factor. Students will identify an engaging topic and use creative writing techniques to compose a vivid statement that will reflect their individuality. A much-needed supplement to other college entrance guides, this useful handbook will help students win over the admissions dean, while preparing them to write better papers once they've been accepted. A guide to crafting a meaningful and polished college admissions essay that expresses the applicant's unique personality, strengths, and goals. Step-by-step instructions lead students from idea to initial draft, through revisions, and to a final version ready for submission. According to the U.S. Department of Education, 69 percent of high school graduates enroll in college. Reviews Publisher's Weekly, March 24th 2008: Included in test prep/college feature article From the Trade Paperback edition.

Students will prepare powerful and successful admission essays with the tools provided in this invaluable, newly-updated resource for the college-bound. Examples of 50 real essays are included, discussing such topics as leadership, personal obstacles, athletics, public service, special talents, and future goals. The strengths and successes of each example are analyzed, as well as the inspirations of each writer. A comprehensive writing workshop provides tips toward selecting topics, developing stories, editing drafts, and applying finishing touches. Further examples of 12 unsuccessful essays, a list of 25 easy mistakes to avoid, and new interviews with admissions officers are presented to help would-be entrants avoid costly blunders.

Could It be this EASY to write college application essays that COMPEL admissions judges to accept you, even if you don't have high grades or SAT scores? The answer is "Yes"! - and if you want to eliminate every possibility of getting rejected from colleges because of your application essay, and start writing an essay that gets you into your DREAM COLLEGE regardless of your grades or SATs...then this will be the most important book you will ever read! But before you start, I have a few important questions for you. Think carefully as you answer... * Do you have a college that, if you are accepted, WOULD MAKE YOUR DREAM COME TRUE - but you feel that your chances are remote? * Are you worried that your grades and SAT scores are not good enough to guarantee your acceptance into your dream college - or any decent colleges? * Are you afraid that you don't have any particularly impressive experiences to discuss in your college application essay? If you answered "Yes" to any of these questions, then I have some important news for you: You Are Not Alone. And it's Not Your Fault. In fact, these 3 questions were generated after interviews with literally thousands of students about the concerns they have when applying to colleges. It's a fact: Every year, thousands of students who have great grades and high SAT scores get rejected from colleges all across the country! There are also thousands of students who didn't have the best grades, test scores, extracurricular activities, but got into top schools such as Harvard, Stanford, UCLA, or Ivy Leagues. How could this be? There is ONE THING all of these students who got into top universities without stellar grades and test scores have in common: Their college application essays have impressed the admissions judges so much that the judges felt EMOTIONALLY COMPELLED to accept them. And they did. In fact, in our interview with an Ivy League admission judge, she bluntly said, in effect, "Look, I read hundreds of applications PER DAY! After reading them for the first 2 hours, my brain already felt scrambled like an egg! Do you really expect me to tell the difference between one applicant and the other pile of 250 applications? The only reason I would accept someone is that if I can really GET TO KNOW HIM FROM HIS ESSAY and he is someone who genuinely impresses me! In that case, his grades and test scores can be a lot more lenient!". Wow! How can you make your essay the one that make the admission judge react like that and accept you? It turns out that there is a very specific set of triggers which, when applied in a college application essay, will drastically increase your chances of acceptance to any top university. These unconventional tools are what these "special students" applied in their essays that got them into Ivy League schools. On the other hand, there is also a set of FATAL MISTAKES that the common students make in their essays, killing their chances of acceptance to their dream colleges. The worst part is that not only are most students unaware of these fatal mistakes, teachers and counselors often recommended them to students as "ways of writing that 'enhance' their essays"! This book is dedicated to give you that set of unconventional tools you can use to maximize your chances of acceptance to YOUR DREAM COLLEGE. It will also show you the top deadly mistakes ALMOST ALL students make and help YOU avoid them. You will learn: * A detailed breakdown of what colleges really look for in an applicant and what the admissions judges are not telling you * How to choose the best material to write in your college application essay * A step-by-step guide to write your outstanding college application essay from introduction to conclusion, applying cutting-edge unconventional tools and techniques that will drastically increase your chances of getting accepted! Now let's get started with your essay! I will see you inside!
